

August, 2017 Employees of the Month

Gale Taylor, School Counselor Bales Elementary School

Gale, you are recognized for going the 'extra mile' to help others. When called upon by teachers to help in a classroom you come without hesitation. You are a wonderful member of the Bales Elementary team. As a leader, when you talk, others listen. You are described as someone who is inspirational, charismatic and thoughtful. During stressful situations you know how to lighten the mood! When children walk out of your office, they are noticeably calmer than when they walked in. The best words used to describe you are Inspirational, Charismatic and Thoughtful.

Denise Marshall, Para-Pro Buckeye Elementary Preschool

Denise, you are described as always willing to help anyone in need, including in the classrooms. You have demonstrated how caring and compassionate you are with all children at the Buckeye Elementary Preschool, not just those in your direct care. When you "jump in" to help any person who needs assistance, including teachers and parents, we have seen an increase in productivity and service. Well done! The best words used to describe you are Helpful, Kind and Passionate.

Kyounghee "Bibi" Mills, 8th Grade Math Buckeye Elementary School

Bibi, you are being recognized by your peers at Buckeye Elementary School for the work you do with students and holding them to a higher standard. You are such an inspiration to others by how you inspire your students with the love of math. In addition to your math classes, you are highly engaged in school activities. Your ability to work with SPED students and staff, and to modify as you see the need, is also well recognized by your peers. You don't hesitate when called upon to provide tutoring for students, helping other staff or attending a meeting when requested. The best words used to describe you are Dedicated, Caring and Prepared.

Robert Wehofer, Teacher Jasinski Elementary School

Rob, you are described as the "Rock" of Jasinski Elementary School. You are recognized as the foundation for workgroups, because you don't hesitate to lend a helping hand. If there is a committee you become a member so that the school staff has a voice in that group. Whether it be the PTA, Site Council, WFTB and PBIS Tier 1, to name just a few. In all you do, you have shown how much you care about the education all students receive. In addition, your peers have observed the high standards of citizenship you hold students to on a daily basis. You are described as someone who maintains a positive attitude, even on the cloudiest of days. The best words used to describe you are Consistent, Fair and Mischievous.

August, 2017 Employees of the Month

Roslyn Quintero, Administrative Assistant Marionneaux Elementary School

Roslyn, you have gone “above and beyond” in getting a new school online in a short amount of time. Your resourcefulness ensured classrooms were ready for learning on day one. You ordered supplies or borrowed them, either way you always keep teachers informed of the status of their requests. Marionneaux is “online” because of you. You are inspiration to your team by never letting them see you sweat. One of your peers said they “always” see you training new staff, walking the halls delivering supplies, or greeting everyone you see with a smile and a “hello.” The best words used to describe you are Dedicated, Caring and Selfless.

Tamala Mooney, Teacher Sundance Elementary School

Tami, you are described as being the consummate team player at Sundance Elementary School. You have demonstrated your commitment to helping others by engaging new team members and taking the lead on making sure everyone has what they need to implement Walk to Succeed effectively. You are recognized as “always” being kind and friendly to everyone you encounter. Your peers see how focused you are on student achievement and how you create a positive work environment. In addition, you take the time to meet with small groups on a regular basis to ensure student needs are always met.

Stormy Hatt, 8th Grade Math Teacher WestPark Elementary School

Stormy, you are described as a WestPark teacher who will skip lunch and free time to tutor math students. Your “open door policy,” in which all students feel welcome and comfortable to ask for math help, is an inspiration. You are setting a wonderful example by exercising the same high standards you have set for your students. Under your leadership math scores have increased and students strive to achieve the high standards you desire. The best words used to describe you are Caring, Honorable and Ethical.

Cretia Iwinski, Administrative Assistant Inca Elementary School

Cretia, you are described as being the “the backbone” of Inca Elementary School. With all of the new staff and administration, you have been a ‘constant’ in what, at times, could have been chaos. You have gone above and beyond the call of duty by stepping in and taking on the roles of others in order to ensure enrollment, attendance, and administrative tasks were completed. The willingness you have to help others, and the devotion you have shown to students, parents, staff and administration, has made the beginning of the school year less stressful. The best words used to describe you are Professional, Efficient and Humble.