

OCTOBER 2017 Employees of the Month

Lucia Guerra, Child Nutrition Field Supervisor BESD Central Office

Lucia, you are described as an inspiration, you lead by example. When staff members are absent, you are there to fill in, making sure no program is left behind. Your expertise and community knowledge has made the directors transition seamless. Your talents have shined through as you spearheaded the Breakfast in the Classroom program, your oversight and determination has made this program a huge success. The best words used to describe you are Hard-working, Determined, and Genuine.

Faryn Hardin, 3rd Grade Teacher West Park Elementary Preschool

Faryn, you are described as a strong presence in and out of the classroom. Your commitment to our students is proven through MYON, DIBLES, and Galileo achievements. You always have a positive and encouraging presence with an open willingness to build relationships with coworkers, students and parents. Your contributions do not go unnoticed as you are always there; giving your time before, during and after school hours; ensuring our students are always engaged and safe. The best words used to describe you are Encouraging, Positive, and Willingness.

Alle Henderson, 7th & 8th Grade Teacher Jasinski Elementary School

Alle, your unparalleled commitment to teaching, to Jasinski, and especially to the students shines through as a beacon for all to follow. You stood up to the challenge of teaching outside of your comfort zone by taking on a long-term substitute position. You continually impress both teachers and students with your innovated lessons plans that keep students engaged and eager to learn. The best words used to describe you are Diligent, Creative, and Undaunted.

OCTOBER 2017 Employees of the Month

Kendra Martin, Reading Interventionist Marionneaux Elementary School

Kenda, you have demonstrated your commitment to students and the Marionneaux campus by doing favors for anyone without any hesitation. You are a person who completes tasks beyond minimal expectation and the staff recognize that the “quality is always guaranteed.” Your smile is sought after every morning and you provide a loving, kind-hearted ear that listens and inspires. You are a person who “goes above and beyond expectations.” Though you have worked for the District for many years, you continually outperform your limits as a paraprofessional by using your unique talents to promote student confidence, achievement and purpose. The best words used to describe you are Committed, Benevolent and Resourceful

Kerry Ann Moore, Administrative Assistant Sundance Elementary School

Kerry Ann, You are described as the heart of the school. You create a friendly compassionate atmosphere where everyone is equally important. You are dedicated to all aspects of Sundance Elementary School. All that enters your school feels your warm welcoming persona. You always seem to have extra time for staff and students in need of your expertise. The best words used to describe you are Professional, Empowering, and Integrity.

Erin Sheridan, Assistant Principal Marionneaux Elementary School

Erin, you are described as Helpful, Professional, Positive, and Determined. Your commitment to Marionneaux is undistorted and shines bright for all within the district to see. You are dedicated to not only the students but to all the staff at Marionneaux. Your dedication, diligence, and hard work is the corner stone for all the success within your school. You took on your new position calmly, collectively, and with veteran like expertise. Through all the daily changes and obstacles that come with any new position and a new school, you have shown to be an example of determination and positivity. Your approachable personality to all that enter the halls of Marionneaux echoes throughout the District as an example for all. The best words used to describe you are Approachable, Motivated, Supportive, Sincere, Calm, and Dedicated.

OCTOBER 2017 Employees of the Month

Alison Troub, Cashier West Park Elementary School

Alison, you are described as hardworking, punctual, and caring. The attention to detail and dedication you provide to the West Park food service section guarantees our students are receiving the best service possible. You are being recognized for your meticulous daily work ethic. Your caring and helpful attitude ensures that the lines are setup and flow without any delays. You are a fantastic representative not only to West Park but for our entire district.

The best words used to describe you are Meticulous, Helpful, and Caring

Cristal Weaver, 2nd Grade Teacher Bales Elementary School

Cristal, you have demonstrated your commitment to Bales Elementary as an inspirational leader to both students and staff; making everyone in your presence feel welcomed at your school. You are recognized as a person who “goes above and beyond your teaching duties.” You have taken on a leadership role within the PTA ensuring that the Students and Teachers of Bales continue to benefit inside and out of the classrooms. Your leadership qualities shine beyond the classroom and are seen with your passion to involve families during afterschool activities.

The best words used to describe you are Kind, Hardworking, and Leader.

Lon Sage, Community and Family Engagement Coordinator BESD Central Office

Lon, you are described as a go to person in the district. You go out of your way to positively promote BESD every day of the week, not just the week days. You truly have a passion for the students and community. You have stepped up in the current absence of our Marketing & Communication Director to make sure our district is staying active in social media and new videos. It has been said that you have a heart of gold and would give someone the last dime you had. The best words used to describe you are Caring, Professional, and Dependable.