

November 2017 Employees of the Month

Anjeline Corchado, Teacher
Jasinski Elementary School

Angie is described as “Positively encouraging”. Her dedication to Jasinski is unmatched and can be seen at every school event. One just has to look at the awesome decorations to see the hard work she does. The best words used to describe her are: Inspirational, Dedicated, and Caring.

Nita Davis, Teacher
West Park Elementary Preschool

Nita is described as a teacher that not only loves her job, but loves the students she teaches. Her commitment to her student is unwavering and a proven success. The best words used to describe her are: Devoted, Honorable, and Loving.

Keri Ellenberger, Speech Pathologist
Buckeye Preschool

Keri is described as a hardworking and caring individual that is an inspiration to others. Her passion for student success is contagious among the staff and can be seen in the progress of the students she affect. The best words used to describe her are: Caring, Passionate, and Professional.

Kendra Garza, Librarian
Jasinski Elementary School

Kendra is described as always being supportive to the students and staff of Jasinski. She is always available to help and to give that extra encouragement when needed. The best words used to describe her are: Inspirational, Dedicated, and Caring.

November 2017 Employees of the Month

Dora Hampton, Administrative Assistant Buckeye Preschool

Dora is described as the heart of the Preschool; her welcoming presence greets all that enter. Her passion for the Preschool is unmatched and shows through her selfless promoting, that has new families enrolling weekly. The best words used to describe her are: Passionate, Loving, and Friendly.

Diana Iverson, Academic Coach Marionneaux Elementary School

Diana is described as contagiously helpful, her will do attitude has made the opening of Marionneaux a success. Her smile is catching and brightens the halls of Marionneaux, as does her personality. The best words used to describe her are: Dedicated, Willing, and Kind.

Robin Johnson, Teacher Marionneaux Elementary School

Robin is described as an inspiration, not only to the students but to his fellow teachers. His personality and can do attitude has given the students a productive and worthwhile learning environment. The best words used to describe him are: Easy going, Supportive, and Kind.

Elizabeth Naughton, Teacher Jasinski Elementary School

Elizabeth is described as more of a family member than a coworker. Her passion for keeping our school beautiful through all her hard work in the school garden can be seen every day by all. The countless hours she spends ensuring Jasinski receives the grants it takes to keep this project alive, does not go unnoticed. The best words used to describe her are: Giving, Motivated, and Family.

November 2017 Employees of the Month

Christian Vasquez, Paraprofessional

Sundance Elementary School

Christian is described as a very kind, patient and helpful member of our team who always goes above and beyond his job requirements. His running group for students that need that extra time to get the energy out, is only one example of the outstanding work he was recognized for. The best words used to describe him are: Reliable, Caring, and Amazing.